

International Academy of Smyrna

Our public charter school focuses on developing scholars who are change agents, critical thinkers, and global citizens through the providing a rigorous curriculum, data-driven instruction, experiential learning, and service learning projects.

Elementary Classroom Teacher

Classroom teacher to provide instruction for students in English Language Arts, math, science and social studies. Candidate must be able to write lesson plans, collaborate with general education teachers and be proficient in classroom management.

- Developing lesson plans based on student data
- Teaching students using appropriate, research-based best practices and strategies
- Utilizing differentiation to support varying learning needs
- Providing independent, small group and whole group instruction
- Consistently monitoring students' progress and growth
- Assess students and make adjustments to instruction
- Regular and consistent communication with parents
- Attend meetings and professional development as required
- Adhere to district policies and procedures
- Supervision of students
- Communicate effectively with all stakeholders in a professional manner
- Establish essential agreements with students that assist in governing classroom behaviors and adherence to school policies and procedures
- Classroom Management

Qualifications

- Bachelor's Degree Minimum
- Passed GACE
- Level 4 Certification (or ability to attain)
- Willingness to Enroll in GATapp or Equivalent Program
- Clear Criminal Background Check

Email resumes to Katrina Brinker, Head of School

Katrina.Brinker@iasmyrna.org

Elementary Teacher (K-5)

Qualified candidate to teach elementary students all subjects including reading language arts, mathematics, social studies, and science. The teacher will utilize effective instructional strategies and classroom management to support and develop a rapport with students, while adhering to school policies and procedures.

- Develop lesson plans, based on student data, to meet individual student needs, utilizing research-based, effective instructional strategies
- Responsible for teaching mathematics, ELA, science, and social studies
- Effectively use instructional technology to support learning
- Monitor student progress through the use of data
- Participate in professional learning communities
- Establish essential agreements with students that assist in governing classroom behaviors and adherence to school policies and procedures
- Classroom Management
- Maintain a clean, structured, and organized classroom
- Provide a safe and monitored environment for students
- Regular and consistent communication with parents
- Maintaining and monitoring grades in the student information system
- Communicate effectively with all stakeholders in a professional manner
- Attend professional development and meetings as required
- Adhere to district policies and procedures

Qualifications

- Bachelor's Degree (Preferable Early Childhood)
- Passed GACE
- Level 4 Certification (or ability to attain)
- Willingness to Enroll in GATapp or Equivalent Program

E-mail resumes to Head of School, Katrina.brinker@iasmyrna.org